FOREST RIVER MARINE

DOCKSIDEPONTOON.COM

From the moment you push off the dock, adventure calls. You cut through open waters with the sun warming your face and the wind at your back, ready to explore wherever the day takes you – whether it's diving into a hidden cove, casting a line for the big catch, or simply drifting under endless skies. As the day fades, you're front and center for a sunset show like no other.

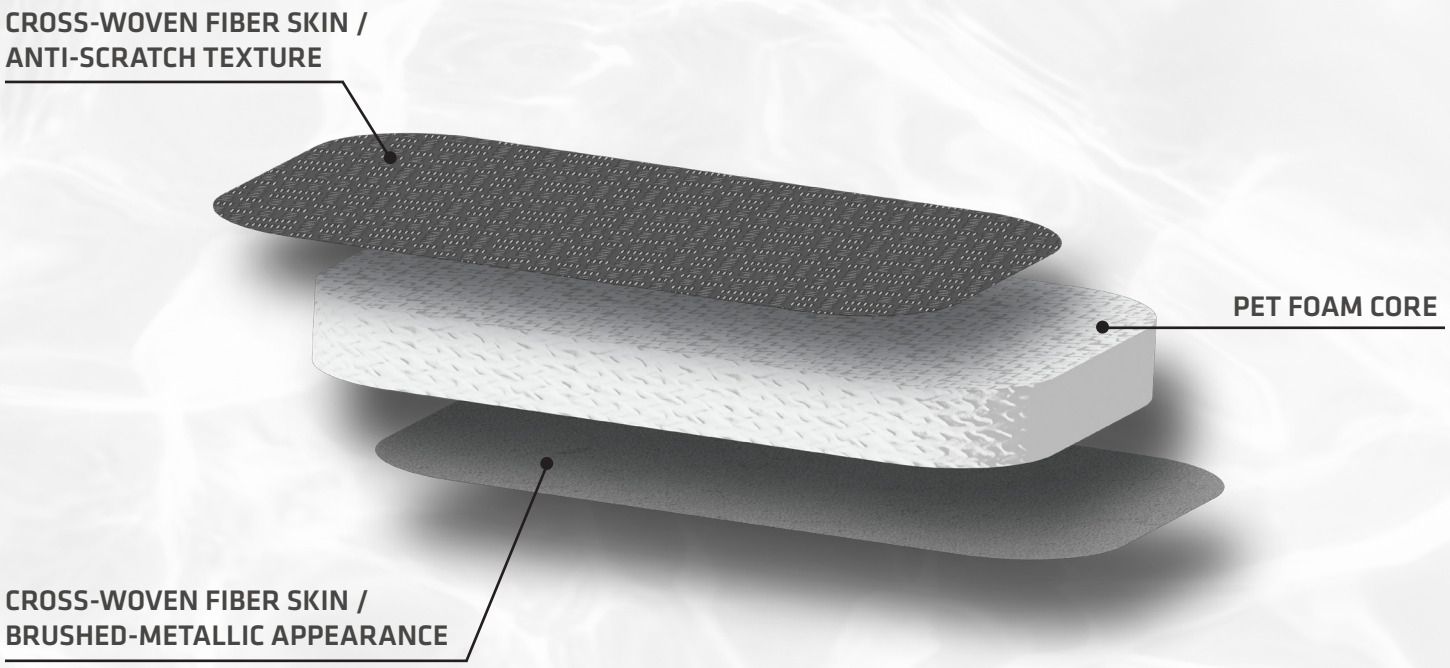
COMPOSITE DECKING

AC LIGHT



Unlike traditional plywood decks that absorb moisture and deteriorate over time, AC Light Composite Deck is engineered with a one-piece extruded PET core for maximum integrity. This superior design prevents water intrusion, mold growth, and rot, ensuring a clean, stable, and worry-free foundation that enhances the longevity and performance of your boat.

FEATURES OF AC LIGHT

- Cross-woven fiber skins for increased strength and screw retention
- 1-piece extruded Polyethylene Terephthalate (PET) core
- Lightweight - 1.404 lb/sqft
- Mold, mildew and insect resistant
- Does not absorb water - 0% water retention
- Less than .08" of thermal expansion
